

My Time at TG by Seb

Introduction

My time at TG has been something I will cherish forever. I have loved every second of my time at here. My friends, my buddy, my brother and my teachers are the ones I have to thank for my amazing time at this school.

First Memories

My first memories of TG are when my mum, instead of driving me to nursery, drove to me to an old building with newer extensions on it. Then we went to Reception where I met my first guide to TG life, who was my buddy, Fleur. She gave me a letter that my mum read to me which explained who Fleur was and what I had to do next, which happened to be a picnic. After that, the next time I saw TG was on the day of the Teddy Bear picnic where I ate with my buddy. I was also allowed to bring my favourite Teddy hence the name, mine was one that I was given on the day I was born. When I actually arrived at TG as a student, I was nervous but reassured knowing I had my buddy to look after me. I was told to tap the fish with my name on it and after five seconds I found mine it was green and orange. Then when I turned around, I saw two familiar faces: my best friend at nursery, Isaac and my cousin, Lilia. After 10 minutes, I made friends with Thomas, who was my best friend for 4 of my years at TG. Soon I realised that one person was late and his name of the fish was very confusing he came eventually and his was Aaryan.

Funny moments

One day while I was playing with Isaac, Bob and Aaryan, a group called the SNS (The Secret Nun Society) ambushed us and tried to sacrifice us and make us into another nun. Naturally, I ran for it, diving under the nun's arms to escape. Soon we found a safe place, it was being offered by Sam, Jack and Yash. They were also offering training to help me defend myself. This gave rise to the mighty Tractor Club. After 10 minutes, we began saving others from being sacrificed. I saved Charlie, Archie and Harrison, to name a few, from the SNS. Once I got cornered by the nuns so they stopped me messing up their plans, so I charged straight for the link that was their hands parted just in time to dodge impact.

Conclusion

I will be sad to leave TG and my friends that aren't going to Alcester Academy. I will also miss Jasmine as she helped me through tough times and I want to thank her for that. Finally, I would like to say thank you to my teachers for all the learning they have shown me.
