Temple Grafton School Junior Christmas Performance 2014 Costume List

Dear Parent/Carer,

The Junior Christmas performances of “Panto Pandemonium” are just around the corner and consequently I have listed some costume suggestions for our talented cast.

As always, please borrow things where you can, have a look in charity shops, dressing up boxes etc. rather than spending a lot of money. Where I have a complete or part of a costume, I will supply it. Your effort in creating superb costumes is always appreciated and really adds to the production. Thank you.

All children should wear black school pumps or black shoes unless otherwise advised. No trainers.

Your children have thrown themselves into this production with their usual gusto! I would appreciate it if however they could be encouraged to continue to learn their lines and song words as the performances loom large. Many children have been given the task of understudying another part in addition to their own. In past years due to illness, a number of understudies have been called upon to perform and it is entirely possible that this could happen again. It is therefore very important that their understudy parts are learned - previous shows wouldn't have gone ahead without them.

Costumes should be left in school each day from Thursday 11th December in anticipation of dress rehearsals and to enable understudies to adapt the appropriate costume at a moment's notice.

We look forward to warmly welcoming you to our wonderful Christmas show. You have been sent details of how to acquire your tickets already. Please come prepared to laugh, cheer and clap loudly and as always, to enjoy some wonderful performances from your very talented children.

Thank you for your continued support,

Jill Staples-Grantham
