

Hello again 🎄

It's the third day of our Virtual Christmas Fair and today it's all about our very own, and very wonderful, Miss (Fiona) Britt!

Fiona runs an online Body Shop business called 'Time For You' offering all the gorgeous smelling products from Body Shop with a personal touch, and FREE DELIVERY!

Body Shop is committed to producing cruelty free, ethical body care and Fiona is offering a whopping 15% off any order over £4 . . . AND special offers for orders over £30!!!

I can personally recommend both the Pink Grapefruit and British Rose lines, they smell AMAZING!!!

You can find Fiona's FaceBook group by searching for 'Time For You' and requesting access. She will then be able to provide you with the full catalogue of what's on offer, and help you decide what gifts suit your budget! In addition she runs regular mini-competitions that are not to be missed!

Take a look at a couple of the examples below, and then click-click your way over to her page!
